Walteria News Notes

Polio Strikes Woman During Oregon Trip

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

Tragedy hit another family well known to members of this community over the holidays when Mrs. Betty Wickstrom, wife of Dale Wickstrom, instructor in Walteria School, was stricken with polio during their Christmas holiday trip to Oregon. Betty is very seriously ill and is confined to an iron lung at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, Ore. I'm sure she would enjoy hearing from her many friends here, so why not drop her a card in care of the hospital? Wickstrom is taking a leave of absence from his teaching post to be near his stricken wife. I know all of us send our thoughts and prayers to this family for the speedy recovery of wife and mother.

Once more the holidays with their rush are over, and most of us have that old familiar "let-down" feeling, which comes with being able to sit down and relax for a change. It's always a little hard to settle down to the ordinary things of everyday living after the Christmas season with all its excitement, but I guess we can start thinking about Easter and the Fourth of July now. In line with the activities which are always with us, the parents of this community should be very interested in attending the next meeting of the Walteria PTA to be held next Thursday evening at 7:30. The program title is "Destiny of Our Children," and will deal with the problems faced by today's youth and the help which can be given them by parents and community leaders. An address will be given by Sgt. D. C. Cook of the Torrance police force. The PTA board is holding its meeting this evening at the Newton St. home of Mrs. Henry Finks.

The Walteria Methodist Church Men's Club held its first regular meeting last Monday night, Jan. 4, at the church on Newton St. There was a large group of men present, including some of the members of the Torrance Methodist Men's group. The men organized their club and elected and installed officers for the coming year. President of the club is J. A. Beasley, vice-president is Dalton Boyd, secretary is Norman Kuska, and treasurer is Charles Martz. Hosts for the evening were Roy Cornell, Johnny Chiadano, and Ralph Parsons. They served doughnuts and coffee. The men have applied for a charter for their group with the National Association of Methodist Men.

Sad goodbyes were bid last week to the Paul Bowen family as the big red truck with their household belongings pulled away to establish their home in their new residence, Ojai. The Bownes were active members in many of the community activities and will be missed greatly by many of us. Their home on Newton St. has been rented for the time being. On Thursday morning, friends and neighbors gathered for a farewell coffee hour in Gerrie's honor, with doughnuts and coffee being served. May we wish the Bownes the best of luck in their new home.

Seems the flu bug ruined the holiday celebrations for many in our community, among them being the Roy Cornell family of Ward St. and the Ken Wyatt family on Newton St.

Now for some of those New Year's parties so many Walterians attended. Allen's Center, the Naval Officers Club in Terminal Island, was the scene of the party attended on New Year's Eve by the Eugene P. Anderson family of Dalewood. The Dale Brodersons of Winlock Rd. went to the VFW dance in Lomita on the eve of New Year's, while the William Hebestretts spent both New Year's Eve and New Year's Day in Lakewood with friends. Jean Guthrie spent New Year's Eve in Belmont with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conklin, and her aunt and uncle now visiting from Iowa. On New Year's Day the whole group spent the day at Jean's home on Winlock. A pre-New Year's open house was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Monaghan of Danaha St. for out-of-town friends. A cold turkey buffet was served their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Beers held a New Year's Eve party at their home on Newton St. with a buffet luncheon and dancing, while Mr. and Mrs. Al Langston of Danaha St. did the same in their garage, which was very cleverly decorated in honor of the occasion.
